

THE RECONNECTION Practitioners' BIOS

Adam B. Teipel, MS, is one of the world's first Associate Instructors and Practitioner Mentors for The Reconnection. He has provided Reconnective

Healing sessions and The Reconnection since November of 2000. Immediately after attending the seminars, many of Adam's clients reported remarkable physical and spiritual experiences as well as healings from a wide range of conditions. Since 2001, Adam has been extensively trained and selected to travel as a primary instructor at seminars with The Reconnection and continues to do so today both nationally and internationally.

In addition to his role as an instructor at Reconnective Healing Seminars, Adam teaches Private/Semi-Private Level III classes in various venues throughout the United States and most recently at his new facility in the Lemongrass Center in San Diego, California. Course offerings range from preparing Level III practitioners for successful completion of Level IV and seminar refresher courses.

Adam offers Reconnective Healing, The Reconnection, Practitioner Mentoring, group lectures and is available to teach Semi-Private Level III classes.
