“Information Medicine” in the 21st Century

This is New, this is Different, this is Real!

by Jackie Lapin

Today's headlines are filled with stories that chronicle our broken medical system, the people who suffer because of a failed safety net, or who cannot afford the care that would help them. And still more people are written about who can afford medical treatment, but modern medicine seems not to cure them, allow them to heal or even eliminate their pain and suffering. Even alternative healthcare is found to be only mildly beneficial.

We wonder, “What if there was another way, one so simple and easy that it defies present day belief? A method so effective that many chronic health conditions and emotional traumas could be eliminated, in many cases, virtually immediately? A method that anyone who desires can learn in a weekend and can use it to help others?”

This is not a futuristic scenario. It's known internationally as Reconnective Healing, a remarkable new transformative paradigm in healing that has been learned by more than 60,000 people around the world. It's the cutting edge of what researchers are calling “Information Medicine”, scientifically documented frequencies that are often credited with bringing about a state of restored health. You can learn how to access these frequencies to heal others, and to heal yourself as well. Stanford Professor Emeritus Dr. William Tiller says that when information carried through these frequencies is introduced, it creates coherence and order. The result: dramatic reports of regeneration instead of degeneration and account after account of seemingly unexplainable, often instantaneous and life-long healings from medically documented cancers, epilepsy, cerebral palsy, arthritis and more.

These bandwidths – comprised of energy, light and information – appear to innately “know” what needs to be done. You are returned to an optimal and appropriate state of balance merely by experiencing or interacting with this healing continuum. The trained Reconnective Healing practitioner simply facilitates the process. By feeling the frequencies and playing with them – an act that appears as if the healer is stretching taffy in the air – physical and emotional health shifts suddenly come about. Even the healing practitioner can see the impact on the person receiving Reconnective Healing as the person's closed eyes flutter and begin to rapidly dart back and forth, fingers or feet move as if of their own volition, even involuntary muscles of the face move in a way that couldn't happen intentionally. All this occurs even though the practitioner usually isn't even touching the client! These involuntary body movements – referred to as registers – are a demonstration that the client has entered into a state where healings often occur. The information-laden frequencies reconnect us to our original fullness as human beings and seemingly restore us to a more complete connection with the universe.

Tiller and other scientists such as Dr. Gary Schwartz (University of Arizona) and Dr. Konstantin Korovkov (St. Petersburg Technical University) have been studying Reconnective Healing practitioners and the charged environment that results in the rooms where this work is taught. As a result, these world renowned researchers are now measuring and validating the frequencies, and the impact that Reconnective Healing has on humans, plants, water and more.

Dr. Pearl is the first to tell you that he is not a scientist. He was a very successful chiropractor for 12 years before his life took a dramatic turn. As he recounts, “I left my office on a Friday, thinking I was I chiropractor, I came back on a Monday, and I was something else...” Then his humor begins to show as he adds, “My parents always told me that I was ‘something else,’ but this was probably not what they had in mind!” Over that weekend he had an experience that introduced an ability within him to facilitate this work. When his patients arrived, they told him that they could feel his hands on them even though he wasn't physically touching them – and they could report accurately where he held his hands! They suddenly began relating astonishing healings from physical conditions that may have been present for 10 years or more, and had been crippling their lives.

It became clear to him that this was something that needed to be shared with the world. Eric's book, The Reconnection: Heal Others, Heal Yourself, has now been published in 36 languages and he teaches people around the globe how to do this work, children as well as mainstream healthcare practitioners. What is especially exciting about this is that it also appears to have
